CONVENT OF ST. ANN.

An Educational and Charitable Institution--The Cowichan Orphanage.

Its Foundation, History and Work--Object of the Institution.

The various orders of the Roman Catholic Church have been ever foremost in the van of civilization, especially on this continent. Is it not to the Jesuit Hennepin we owe our first geographical knowledge of the mighty Mississippi and our western plains, even the first glimpse of the Rocky Mountains? From the earliest days of the colonization of America by Europeans, these religious orders have gone forth carrying not only the glad tidings of "on earth, peace, good will toward men," but also beneath the banner of the cross the seeds of our western civilization. Their sufferings and hardships, endowed both in the cause of their master and a desire to satisfy the thirst for geographical knowledge, are they not facts of history? And the name LaVendre and Hennepin, with a host of others, will live as long as Canada has a history. In the very early days of the early fifties established themselves here in the City of Victoria in connection with the Roman Catholic Mission of the Island of Vancouver, and on the 5th day of June, in the year of grace, 1858, the nucleus of the present grand institution of the Convent of St. Ann was laid in a small cottage near the present institution, under the patronage of the late Right Rev. Bishop Demers, with Sister Mary Angele, and Sister Mary Sacred Heart as superior, Sister Mary Conception and Sister Mary Lumina as assistants. The order of St. Ann is a purely Canadian order, being founded in the year 1838 at Lachine, near Montreal, and its members are devoted to charity, nursing the sick, the care of the orphan and the cause of education. Twelve years after being established the good work of the good sisters assumed such large proportions that it was found necessary to provide more extensive quarters; accordingly the premises on View street, where the Kindergarten is at present carried on, were erected in 1864, and the present magnificent premises were occupied on the 19th March, 1873, and finally completed on the 19th March, 1887. The building and grounds are amongst the finest in the city. Built of solid brick with stone foundation, the first floor with music hall has a length of 288 feet, and the upper floors of 170 feet. It has a basement and three upper stories; the rooms and dormitories are large and well ventilated, fitted up with all modern improvements for heating and sanitary purposes, while its situation so close to the beautiful Beacon Hill has all the desirable advantages suited for

THE SISTERS OF ST. ANN

for young girls. The interior arrangements are perfect and nothing seems wanting; with hot and cold baths, spacious class rooms and other essential conveniences the Convent of St. Ann's is a model establishment. The institution is under the care of the Rev. Mother Superior Sister Mary Ann, ably assisted by some 14 other Sisters of the order. There are 47 young lady boarders and about on an average of some 150 day scholars on the rolls of the establishment, composed of all shades of religious denominations. As one of our leading educational establishments the young ladies' school of the Convent of St. Ann stands foremost. In connection with the Convent of St. Ann an orphanage was formed at its first inception. The number of orphans gradually increasing from year to year, and on the score of economy, as well as for other reasons, the sisterhood were compelled to remove the children to their farm at Cowichan. Here the institution has prospered under the motherly care of the good sisters. Many an unfortunate child, left by a cruel parent to the mercies of an early day Victorian world, now grown up to man or woman estate, has to thank the Sisters of St. Ann for the blessings of not only being retained in robust health with the Divine assistance, but also for the blessing of a good, sound education, a careful religious training that has stood them in helpful need through the trials and difficulties of life. This orphanage is supported solely by the industry of the sisterhood, and the precarious aid from the proceeds of an annual bazaar. Otherwise the aid from the public is nil. There are on the books of the orphanage at present receiving all the advantages of a careful industrial training and a liberal education. Should any of the children exhibit any talent for the higher branches, they are indulged in their educational taste and inclinations, and every care taken to give them every advantage to cultivate their talents. Some of the children are the victims of hereditary diseases and have been left a burden on the institution by unfeeling parents, and in one instance for over 18 years, although the child's surviving parent lives in luxury. That the orphanage attached to the Convent of St. Ann deserves the support of the charitable public will be readily admitted by all. Is not this and other kindred institutions entitled to some aid from the public treasury? 'Tis true we have no poor law, yet a provincial annual money grant would not it is fancied receive any opposition from the electors of the province, and the insertion of a provision in the estimates for aid to such institutions would, it is thought by the Rev. Mother Superior, be a popular move. On going over the Convent of St. Ann, its history, trials and difficulties, as related by the gentle Rev. Mother Superior, in a patient, uncomplaining tone, it draws hard on the paps of the milk of human kindness, even those of the hard hearted man of THE TIMES.

The Unfortunate Resemblance an Innocent Man Bears to a Felon.

New York, Aug. 14—A special from London says: A letter now on its way to America from Consul Pistt, at Queenstown, will save Robert Leeson Porter from being executed as a murderer. Porter resembles Scott Partin, who, thirteen years ago, while living near Raleigh, N. C., murdered his wife and child. The police never caught him. A few days ago a letter was received from Porter by his sister at Queenstown, stating that he was under arrest in Raleigh, charged with being Partin, the murderer. Photographs of Partin and Porter sent to Queenstown show a most remarkable resemblance between the men. To make the case more extraordinary, the Prosecuting Attorney at Raleigh wrote that five distinct body marks on Partin, such as the loss of a middle finger, and the location of moles and cuts, were found on the man under arrest. The sister of Porter lives near Cork, and his family is very well known. Some of them are members of the British peerage. Porter is connected by marriage with Doctor Tanner, M. P. In 1873 Robert Porter emigrated to America. Two years later he wrote letters to Ireland from Port Preble, near Portland, Me., saying that he was in the United States Artillery. These letters are still undestroyed. Consul Pistt says that there is no doubt that the writing is the same as that of the man now in prison at Raleigh. The Consul has verified every statement written by Porter since his arrest to the British Minister at Washington. The case has aroused unusual interest in the south of Ireland, and many prominent people are interested in securing Porter's release.

Last night Moodyville presented a most brilliant and fascinating appearance, as the bright glitter of the electric light, with which the mill was illuminated, blended with the red glare of the refuse fires, and was reflected across the waters of the inlet. The mill is running day and night with additional hands to supply the increased demand for lumber.

COLONIST AND STANDARD.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:

SIR:—That wonderful paragon of polite literature, the Colonist, copies from the Toronto Empire an article condemning a few strong utterances about the Standard from the "Grit paper on the Pacific Coast." It does not seem so very long ago since the Colonist got the following off about the same Standard and its "proprietor:" "The occupants of the stye," "an impossible and reckless political mountebank," "this wonderful contortionist," "this shuffling, selfseeking, and most unscrupulous politician, &c., &c." Empire, please copy and tell us what you think of the "Conservative paper on the Pacific Coast." SCHOOL HOLIDAYS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:

SIR:—As a parent of several children that attend the school at the head of View street, I would wish to ask you by whose authority the children have been sent home yesterday and to-day? I do not object to my children having a holiday, but I do object to them having to travel from James Bay to the public school, about one mile, and then to be sent home or turned upon the streets to play. I think those in power, when giving holidays, might tell them the day previous and not take about one thousand children there for nothing. A PARENT.

The Sardonyx came in from the outer wharf this morning and tied up alongside of the Titania to unload salmon.

The steamer Amelia on the way down from Comox yesterday with the Spitfire alongside, met with a slight accident at Dodds' Narrows. A strong tide was running through, which carried the steamer over against the rocks. A few of her paddles were broken, and as a consequence she was unable to proceed on her regular trip this morning. The Spitfire was left at Burgoyne Bay.

Terrible Storm in Quebec--Five Persons Killed---Schofield Commander-in-Chief.

STEAMERS COLLIDE.

New York, Aug. 17—The steamer Wieland of the Hamburg American Steamship line has brought news of a collision off Sable Island between the "Geyser" and "Thingvalla," both of the Thingvalla Line, which occurred at 4 o'clock on the morning of the 14th. The Geyser sunk in five minutes after the collision and 105 persons were drowned. The Thingvalla was so disabled that she had to put into Halifax after transferring all of her passengers to the Wieland. The Geyser had 86 passengers aboard, 72 of whom were drowned or killed in the collision and 14 were taken first on the Thingvalla and then on the Wieland. The Geyser crew numbered 50, of whom 33 were drowned and 17 saved. Capt. Muller of the Geyser was among those saved. The passengers of the Thingvalla were transferred to the Wieland, and numbered 455.

The master of the Geyser went before the Danish consul in this city this morning and made a statement concerning the disaster. It was decided to hold an investigation here, not at Copenhagen, as witnesses can be reached here easier.

A corrected list of the lost show 105, as given by Capt. Muller of the Geyser. The Geyser carried 93 passengers and a crew of 43. Of the passengers 14 were saved and of the crew 17.

STEAMSHIP AGROUND.

San Diego, Aug. 14—While entering the harbor this afternoon the Pacific Coast Steamship Company's steamship City of Pueblo, Capt. Debrey, broke the rudder chain on the port side, causing her to become unmanageable, as she was running under a full head of steam. She veered to the left and ran aground near Laptaya. She will be gotten off at high tide without any trouble. A number of passengers were transferred to tug boats and brought to the city. The vessel is expected to sail for San Francisco tomorrow as usual.

The committee is also directed to ascertain whether the contracts have been violated and report, whether any legislation is necessary for the protection of the seal fisheries.

SEVERE STORM.

Salt Lake, Aug. 17—A severe storm prevailed in the surrounding country last night. At Smithfield one man was killed by lightning. Reports are coming in from various points of serious damage to dwellings. Several washouts have occurred on the Central Pacific. Trains are delayed.

IMMIGRATION MATTERS.

New York, Aug. 17—The congressional immigration committee this morning principally investigated the management of Castle Garden. Supt. Jackson covered in his testimony substantially the facts taken by the congressional committee some months ago. He said that the immigrants, as a rule, do not bring as much money to the country as formerly, but the average annual amount brought over is $8,000,000. The Castle Garden authorities do nothing to enforce the contract labor law, and do not even ask if immigrants who come are under contract, neither has the U. S. District Attorney done anything to enforce the law, the latter holding that the remedy was by civil suit. No appropriation had been made by Congress to enforce the law and there was no money to pay witnesses.

THE PLAGUE IN FLORIDA.

Jacksonville, Aug. 17—The yellow fever is rapidly disappearing, if the present state of affairs is an indication. No new cases nor deaths for twenty-six hours are reported.

TWO TOWNS AT WAR.

Whichita, Kan., Aug. 17—One of the military companies which returned this morning from Stevens county related that there is every prospect of another outbreak between Woodsdale and Hugotown as the people of the former place avow that they will be revenged for the death of their four citizens. The situation in Grant county is said also to be so strained that citizens have asked General Meyers to have one company at each of the towns, Cincinnati and Ullysses, as between these places the bitterest rivalry exists over the county seat question. South towns are paying a number of lawless characters from a neutral strip one dollar a day and board to remain within their borders so that they can vote on the county seat question which comes up in about thirty days. A complication has arisen over the fact that Hugotown and Woodsdale men have taken sides with the rival town of Grant county. Arms are said to be in the hands of the belligerants and each side is afraid of the other, hence the request for troops.

FROM THE NORTH.

The Great Treadwell Mill Starts Working 250 Stamps.

The steamer Ancon, Captain Carroll, arrived from Alaska this morning, and the excursionists spent the forenoon around town. Capt. Carroll, who was seen at the Driard, reported nothing new from the north excepting that mining was very active. Treadwell's new mill of 250 stamps was started on the 11th inst. and was working well. It is the largest mill at present working under one roof in the world. The latest news from the black sand deposits was that they were not turning out very well. The Ancon experienced fine weather and the trip was very much enjoyed by the excursionists.

It is a sight to see the 240 ponderous stamps working with the regularity of a clock driven by a small wheel not more than four feet in diameter. The crushing capacity of the mill is now from 600 to 700 tons per day, and will double the output of the mine per month. Experts who returned on the Ancon say that the Treadwell mill is the finest by odds that there is in the world.

Mining in the basin near Juneau, Alaska, has given promise of giving for this season good returns. The development of quartz leads at the same place is being made with the most encouraging results. At Barmer's Bay quartz interests are very promising, with new discoveries recently made will give increased confidence.

NEW WESTMINSTER.

Arrival of Circus---Chief Corbett Takes a Final Leap.

New Westminster, Aug. 17—The Yosemite arrived at noon with Sells' Brothers circus on board. An immense crowd of people are in the city from all parts of the district.

Last evening W. J. Corbett, chief engineer of the fire department, and Miss Sutherland, of this city, were united in the bonds of matrimony by the Rev. Thos. Scoullar, of St. Andrews Church. Temperature, max. 84, min. 58.

Notes of the Circus.

The circus has come and gone. It was probably no better and no worse than dozens which have traveled the same road before. No question but what some dashing bareback riding was done and the hippodrome races were worth looking at. Certainly the representations of antique and modern statuary by the Roman gladiators was a cultured performance. Altogether there is not much to complain about seeing that most Pacific coast people have cut their eye teeth long ago and know what to expect of traveling circuses. The number of people who were attracted to town was unusually large.

What They Say.

Mr. Smith, editor of the Standard, met Mr. Brown, the book-keeper on the same paper, and in a conversation which is published in the newspaper they decided that the Standard is the best evening paper. The public say that the only difference in the sheet is that it is published in the evening instead of the morning.

Robt Jenkins and wife of Toronto returned from a trip to Alaska this morning. Mr. Jenkins is a leading real estate dealer and financier of the eastern metropolis.

Wm Mead, the ever popular Royal Route man, is at the Driard. He has been promoted to general freight and passenger agent of the C, St P, M & O.

HOW THE CASE STANDS.

It was stated in the TIMES a few days ago that the promoters of the New Westminster Southern Railway entirely disapproved of the Columbian's hysterical abuse of the C. P. R. As our contemporary has seen fit to characterize the statement as "baseless and false," the TIMES takes this opportunity to repeat the statement by way of assuring the provincial secretary's paper that it is not in the habit of publishing wilfully what it believes to be untrue. However, as the matter has been brought up will our contemporary explain how the Southern railway men can endorse the conduct of the Columbian and at the same time remain friendly to the C. P. R.? It is plain that if they elect to stand in with the railway they must repudiate the paper, and as its policy is to antagonize interests that need not necessarily be antagonised, and therefore to embarrass an important enterprise the promoters have wisely decided to stand out with the paper.

AN UNFAVORABLE VOTE.

The reporter who made up our telegraphic report for the press yesterday was in error in inferring that the vote in the U. S. Senate refusing to postpone the consideration of the fisheries treaty till December, was a vote favorable to the treaty. It was on the contrary unfavorable. Senator MORGAN, of Alabama, who moved the postponement is a leading Democrat, from which fact it may reasonably be inferred that it is the desire of his party to avoid a final vote at present. It is evidently feared by the administration that if the Senate is divided on the question now the treaty will be defeated and undoubtedly the Republicans have the strength in the Senate to do it if they wish to use it. The probabilities are that a final vote will be taken this week and that the work of the commission will prove to have been fair so far as the main treaty is concerned. Anticipating this, however, the commission have given them a temporary treaty to fall back upon which is sufficiently liberal to supply the most grasping of Uncle Sam's citizens.

THE COLONIST SILENT.

Our esteemed morning contemporary, the Colonist, seldom loses an opportunity to strike back, and generally tries to make the best of a bad cause by abusing the opposite counsel. But the editor is unequal to the task of dealing with the Hendry case. It has not the courage to refer to the subject at all, and seems to have forgotten its old trick of abuse and misrepresentation. We charge that Mr. HIGGINS was the chief ring-leader and is the man primarily responsible for the shameful waste of one thousand dollars, as decided by the jury. He made the balls for COUGHLAN to fire, and had it not been for his overwhelming vanity and ambition which led him into a contest for the mayoralty, he would probably have been one of the unfortunate majority who prostituted their positions to gratify personal animosities. We submit that our contemporary has a duty to perform in this matter. If it will not defend the stand taken by its late editor—and by the way, it has departed very far from the teaching of that gentleman on many subjects—then it must be willing to condemn the acts of the five aldermen who are more directly responsible for subsequent proceedings. These men cannot plead that they did not know better, for they were repeatedly warned that the corporation would be held responsible for Mr. HENDRY'S salary for six months services. They were a law unto themselves, and should now be made accountable to the law. We respectfully invite our contemporary to give the public the benefit of its opinion upon this question. We are interested to know what the dimensions of the aperture will be that our friend will crawl through.

ALD. KELLY'S BONUSES.

Ald. KELLY has given notice that he will submit at the next meeting of the City Council a motion in favor of granting bonuses to the extent of $150,000 for the purpose of bridging the gulfs that lies between Vancouver Island and the Mainland. This sum of money, the worthy and enterprising alderman proposed to divide between three enterprises, viz., $25,000 for a steam railway ferry between Beecher Bay, V. I., and Crescent Bay, W. T., which will connect the E. & N. with the Southern Pacific railway; $25,000 for a ferry between Shoal Harbor and a point at or near Fraser River, which is a portion of the new scheme recently outlined; and $100,000 for a railway bridge at Seymour Narrows, to form a portion of the road that sooner or later will be extended from Victoria via the Peace River country to the east. We are accustomed to hear, through the press and other channels, a great deal about the moss-backism of our pioneer citizens, and it has frequently occurred to us that that chestnut was becoming somewhat stale from too frequent repetition. Alderman KELLY is a pioneer of the pioneers, and yet he is no laggard in the race, evidently preferring to lead or direct rather than follow public opinion on all questions affecting our commercial prosperity and material advancement as a community. He has, it would appear to us, taken a very long step in advance of the times in the proposition to assist in the construction of a bridge at Seymour Narrows before the formation of a company to build the road; but no doubt the worthy alderman seeks only at present to direct attention to the enterprise with a view of ultimately arriving at a definite line of actioo. He wants to set in motion an idea that he hopes will gather strength and cohesion as it travels. The suggestion of bonuses to the two ferry schemes is within the range of practical action, and as soon as the companies concerned are prepared to proceed with the roads to connect therewith, there will be no difficulty in securing the passage of such by-laws as Mr. KELLY will shortly introduce. The fact that all three bonuses are for enterprises outside of the city limits need not be an insuperable obstacle, as the companies which it is proposed to assist will all have large interests in Victoria which can be bonused instead. We hope now that Ald. KELLY has put his hand to the plough he will not turn back. Both railway ferry schemes are feasible, and only require for their accomplishment the united and energetic support of our leading business men and large property owners. As the latter especially will derive the largest share of benefit from the increased population that would be certain to follow were Victoria made a railway centre, they ought to place themselves at the head of the movement, and, sweeping all obstacles aside, carry to successful completion within a year or two the two great enterprises referred to.

RAILWAY SPEED.

The speed on some of the British railways goes on increasing at a wonderful rate. There is a sharp competition between the Great Northern and the West Coast Line. The cuts are not in the tariff of rates but in the time table. The Great Northern in June reduced its schedule time from London to Edinburgh to eight hours and a half and the West Coast Line in July followed suit. The Great Northern shortly afterwards made another cut of half an hour and its western rival found it necessary to do the same. In order to make the distance in that short time the trains must be driven at a rate of speed that appears to the uninitiated simply astounding. A railway expert of the London Times made the trip on one of the flying trains of the West Coast Line on Monday last and gave a detailed account of the run to his paper. "He says "the engine had a single pair of driving wheels seven feet six inches in diameter and weighed 27 tons. It burned 24 pounds of coal per mile during the run. The tender loaded weighed 25 tons. Behind it were four coaches filled with passengers, making a weight of 20 tons each or 80 tons in all. The first 31½ miles, which were up grade—one foot in seventy—were made in forty minutes. This rise surmounted, the speed increased very considerably, and the passengers were prepared to hear that the train was going at the rate of sixty miles an hour. They were astonished to find that the rate was seventy-two miles an hour. The first 158 miles of the journey were made without a halt in 2 hours and 58 minutes. This was within a fraction of a mile a minute for all that distance. The greatest speed made was a mile in 48 seconds, or at the rate of seventy-two miles an hour. This speed was kept up for eight or ten miles. The 101 miles from Carlisle to Edinburgh was covered in 104 minutes, over a pass 1015 feet high. The Times' expert declares that this run is simply unprecedented in railway annals. The entire distance, 400 miles, was covered in 7 hours 25 minutes, exclusive of stops, an average of 53 53-89 miles per hour. The sensations of the passengers who were rushed through the country at such wonderful speed do not appear to be thrilling. The writer says:

Despite the fearful speed, the journey was not at all unpleasant. The jostling and lateral motion seemed no greater than when going at ordinary speed. The sight from the windows was very unusual, however. Trains coming at full speed from the opposite direction went by with a crash like a volley of musketry, and were indistinguishable brown-colored masses, seen only for a moment. A short tunnel was like a gas jet, suddenly extinguished and suddenly relighted, the eye not having time to accustom itself to the darkness. Long tunnels were passed through with a booming roar and a continuous shower of sparks. Against the blackness it was quite like an effect in fireworks. There was no more danger in the trip than in one at the ordinary speed, and the only noticeable difference was a slight shakiness of the legs upon getting out.

THE UNJUST SCHOOL LAW.

In passing a resolution condemning the amendment to the school act, whereby this municipality is required to contribute the sum of $6000 towards the maintenance of the public schools, the City Council, following the example of the school board, has placed itself squarely on record as unanimously opposed to the invidious and unjust tax. The Government, taking advantage of a request from the Victoria school board for power to increase its revenue for school purposes, introduced and carried, against the strong protests of the opposition, a clause, which reads as follows:

"One-third of the salaries of the teachers employed in the public schools in the cities of Victoria, New Westminster, Vancouver and Nanaimo shall be borne and paid by the municipal corporations of the said cities respectively."

This amendment, it is needless to point out, instead of assisting the school board, robs the cities named of large sums of the money collected for distinctively municipal purposes. Hitherto the whole expenditure for educational purposes has been made by the government out of the public revenues and every section of the province was treated alike. Now there is one law for the cities and another for the districts, a principle in legislation that is not recognized in any civilized community. Besides continuing to pay into the provincial treasury the taxes as levied generally upon the whole province, the cities will be compelled in addition to contribute one-third of the salaries of the teachers, amounting in the case of Victoria to six thousand dollars. Another amendment made the Mayor of the city ex-officio chairman of the school board, a change which would not be objectionable under ordinary circumstances, but as part of a scheme to defraud the ratepayers was very properly looked upon with suspicion and disfavor. Mayor GRANT has not attended any meeting of the school board, as by so doing he would have, to a certain extent, recognized the justness of the new law and admitted its constitutionality, which we believe he is inclined to dispute. He has had nothing to do with the fraudulent pretext of the government to filch from the people double the amount of money expended for high school purposes, the cost of which was the excuse offered for the partial and discriminating enactment. The Council has, by adopting the resolution offered by Ald. POWELL, taken issue with the Government, and is prepared to resist the iniquitous law to the last. The Mayor has been instructed not to sit as a trustee, and the city treasurer has been prohibited from receiving any funds collected as tuition fees or paying any portion of the revenues towards the salaries of school teachers. This means, in plain language, that the law and the Minister of Education, who is above the law, are set at defiance, and it now remains to be seen what steps the latter will take to enforce the objectionable impost. Without any machinery to compel payment (it was pointed out at the time that the amendments were not worth the paper JOHN ROBSON wrote them on) the Government, we think, are powerless to do anything. No doubt they will retaliate upon the city, but how far dare they go? Let Messrs. DUCK, DAVIE and TURNER answer. Ald. POWELL, and all who supported his motion, are deserving of the thanks of our citizens. The other cities in the province, it is probable, will take a similar stand.

One of the best known railway men in Canada says of the change in the Presidency of the C. P. R. "The change in the Presidency is meant to disarm American hostility to the road with the Canadian Baronet at its head by placing a well-known American railway man in his stead. New arrangements for increasing the traffic will at once be made, and where an American transcontinental road has been hurt before it is hoped to injure them considerably more in the future.

THE CARIBOO TEST WORKS.

To the Editor of the Times:

Sir,—All discussions of public affairs should be characterized by a spirit of candor, of sincerity and of truth. Any violation of these virtues is calculated not only to mislead and perplex those who administer public affairs but to bring the object we are endeavoring to promote into public disrepute. We are sorry to say that these observations are applicable to a Chilcotin correspondent who in a letter dated July 27th adheres neither to truth nor to a spirit of fair play. For in referring to a report of a public meeting held here wherein the miners rejected the proposal to erect the Government Test Works at Island Mountain, his remarks are nothing more or less than a gross misrepresentation of facts. And as those misrepresentations may mislead the public and injure the reputation of those referred to, we shall endeavor to correct them by a plain statement of facts.

Two meetings were held, the first called by the agent of the Island Mountain Company, the second by Messrs. Mason and Cowan. At the first meeting H. Watt presented the proposal of the I. M. Co. in the form of a resolution, and then gave his reasons why it should be adopted. After that Mr. Ferguson addressed the meeting, and as he is misrepresented by your correspondent, we shall give the substance of his speech. He said the appropriation voted by the Legislature was both liberal and ample, which might be regarded as a proof not only of their good will toward Cariboo but also as a proof of their unbounded confidence in her mineral resources.

Now, in order to carry out the design of the Legislature to render the test works a success three things are essential. The first thing essential is that the works should be located in a convenient place, convenient to wood and water. There is an abundance of these two requisites near Barkerville; convenient to the assayer who is appointed to take charge of the works, whose office is in Barkerville—convenient to the miner and the mines. Now as most of the quartz ledges are in the mountains behind Barkerville, and as the road from Keithley, from Harvey, from Antler and from Grouse creek, indeed from nearly all the outlying creeks terminate in Barkerville it would be convenient to all parties to have the test works erected not at Island Mountain, which is five miles away, but in the vicinity of Barkerville.

The second thing essential to render the test works a success is accurate returns. This is essential to inspire public confidence, to insure to those that have rock tested the fruit of their labor and capital. For by false returns a man may be induced to forego a claim that is valuable or to work a ledge that is barren. Now, the government can secure this to the miner, not by transferring the management to a private company but by retaining it in their own hands. Economy is also essential to success and this should not be accomplished by connecting the works with Island Mountain machinery. For in having two or three hundred pounds of rock reduced a person would have to set in motion a ten stamp mill, which would be very expensive. Even from a business standpoint Barkerville should reject the proposal of I. M. C., for all the public buildings are here and the test works should be erected here also.

These are the reasons given by Mr. Ferguson and not the mere benefit derived from the money expended in erecting these works as expressed by your correspondent. Instead of giving those facts, that the public might be able to judge for themselves he has misrepresented Mr. Ferguson, bequeathed to him the deformities of his own illiberal mind and held him up to public odium. And be it remarked that he professes to base his strictures upon a report in your columns which is a deliberate falsehood, for Mr. Ferguson's speech was not reported in the columns of any paper. But by many people here this is regarded as a kick to keep Mr. Ferguson out of the field at the coming election. If so, we would inform your correspondent that when that event arrives the old residents of Barkerville may erect another standard to test intellectual ability; they may even answer his laconic and ejaculatory prayer by electing Soda Creek to stay at home. The necessity of such works as are about to be erected by the Government has been felt by the miner for years and because there was unanimity of opinion at the meeting as to where they should be erected, it is attributed by your correspondent to an object following of Messrs Mason and Cowan, which is not the case; for when the "Act for Guarantees was first mooted" in Victoria, had our representatives consulted the miners here they would have rejected the bill and petitioned for similar works as are about to be erected; so that the people here are not the intellectual imbeciles your correspondent represents. In public opinion they were at least a year in advance of their representatives and in following them both Mr. Mason and Mr. Cowan display good judgment, for if is a mark of a good legislator to translate the needs of his district into law. In the proposal made by the Island Mountain Co., there are several conditions; one is that the Government should reduce their rock for six dollars per ton and as it costs from ten to sixteen dollars a ton to reduce rebellions ore the condition is a liberal one. Another condition is that for testing rock the miners may use the works five or six days a month, thus utilizing by a company what was designed by the legislature for the good of the whole of the miners. And yet your correspondent says that Island Mountain mine would occupy the same position as other mines. All the people have a right to their say in the Legislature by their representatives with regard to the appropriations for any district, but your correspondent claims the right to have some say in the expenditure or at least this right is claimed for Victoria, which proves that he has very erroneous views about the administration of public affairs. Suppose a sum of money voted to construct a road in Chilcotin or to make some improvements in Victoria, and Barkerville were to dictate to you where the road should be constructed or how the improvements should be made, would they not be told to mind their own business and you would attend to your own local affairs.

But suppose, contributing more than your share to the public revenue, or paying assessments into some mine here gave you a right to say in our local affairs, would that qualify you to pronounce an opinion upon important mining matters while you are hundreds of miles away. Instead of the intellectual pre eminence, we think there is a want of sense here. The most of people would like to see more light in the counsels of the Legislature, but your correspondent wishes to introduce more thunder, forgetting that it is the lightning that strikes and destroys. After the test works are erected the quartz will be put upon their probation, and their rise or fall will be watched with anxiety for our future prosperity depends upon it.

THE ESKIMO

Schwatka's Theories in Regard to These Queer People.

Why human beings have been found living in this lone land of desolation has given rise to no little theorizing and speculation, the bulk of which seems to be that they are cruelly forced to abide here by the supposed greater strength of the savages to the south of them. My own ideas are with the "respectable minority," which believes that they are found in these regions for the same reasons that we find the reindeer, the musk-ox, and the walrus; that is, it suits their peculiar temperment and disposition better than any other climate or condition possibly could, and they are no more forced into the frigid zone by other savages than the animals named are held there by the antelope, buffalo, or cariboo of lower latitudes. When they are taken from their hyperborean home they are as restless to return as the castaway in their own land are to get back to civilization, and, singular enough, despite all their desolate surroundings, they are the most happy and contented race, savage or civilized, in the four corners of the earth, although it is the coldest corner. The tale told by Capt. Hall of the deep longing of the sick and sinking Eskimo, Kudsalgo, to see his land of ice and snow before he died, and his joy on being carried to the deck of the Arctic bound ship when the first iceberg was sighted, is as pathetic as any ever told of the return of African refugees to their land of flowers and forests; and clearly shows that patriotism and love of home is circumscribed by no parallels of latitude nor influenced by climatic conditions. Wherever the Indians and Eskimo have come in contact in an aggressive way, the Northern nomads have steadily pushed back their copper colored neighbors, and the only places where they—the Eskimo—have penetrated far inland to reside, is along the Yukon and Kouskoquim rivers of Alaska. Here they have elbowed out the Indian for some hundreds of miles, and find a luxuriant living on the swarming fisheries of these streams.—American Magazine.

A Warning.

The modes of death's approach are various, and statistics show conclusively that more persons die from diseases of the throat and lungs than any other. It is probable that everyone, without exception, receives vast numbers of tubercle germs into the system and when these germs fall upon suitable soil they start into life and develop, at first slowly and is shown by a slight tickling sensation in the throat and if allowed to continue their ravages they extend to the head, causing catarrh. Now all this is dangerous and if allowed to proceed will in time cause death. At the onset you must act with promptness; allowing a cold to go without attention is dangerous and may lose you your life. As soon as you feel that something is wrong with your throat, lungs or nostrils, obtain a bottle of Boschee's German Syrup. It will give you immediate relief.

WOMEN NOT CITIZENS.

An Interesting Case Decided—Woman Suffrage Unconstitutional.

An interesting case has just been decided in the Supreme Court in Washington Territory. A lady named Nevada M. Bloomer was debarred from voting at an election held in Spokane Falls on April 3rd, and for this she asked damages in the sum of $5,000. The judges of the election filed a demurrer, when action was brought and the demurer has been sustained. Judge Nash, in declaring woman suffrage unconstitutional, said the intention of Congress in using the word "citizen" as found in the organic act, is considered by the court as pertaining wholly to persons of the masculine gender, the object being to exclude aliens from using the elective franchise, and not extending any particular powers to women. It never was intended that woman should be admitted as a delegate to the house of representatives in Congress. The form of every word in the constitution of the United States goes to show that the offices provided for therein shall be males. The form of every word in that relation is masculine. For thirty years Congress has understood the meaning of the word "citizen," as far as the privilege of voting was concerned, to mean males only. As soon as the opinion was filed Mr. A. S. Austin, of Tacoma, counsel for plaintiff, asked for an obtained permission to take an appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States.

Too Much Enterprise.

Ye Gods, what enterprise! The Standard of last evening published an interview with D. H. McNeill, who arrived from the Yukon last Monday week, when he was interviewed by THE TIMES and the news telegraphed all over the Dominion. Halifax papers with this Yukon news came to hand two or three days ago. Moral: Subscribe for the Halifax papers if you want to read the local news before it appears in the Standard.

Menzies-Crawford Case.

In the police court this morning Mr. Thornton Fell appeared for the prosecution in the charge against "Professor" Menzies and Mrs. Crawford.

Mr. Walls asked for a remand on account of being engaged in a case in the Supreme Court.

His Honor granted a remand until to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock.

Poisoned Butter.

Mr. G. W. Gillette, says the Seattle Post-Intelligencer, who is employed by Messrs. Harrington & Smith, states that on Tuesday he got a keg of butter which was not saleable, and after putting poison in it to kill rats, which are very troublesome about his place, sent it out to the Pontius addition by the street car. It was put off at his landing, but before any of his family went out to get it it was stolen, and he is now anxiously waiting to hear of the death of a thief in his neighborhood. The only fear is that the thief may sell the butter to innocent people and he wishes to warn all such from buying butter from suspicious persons.

The Hungarians.

On Monday evening the Royal Hungarian Military Band will open a three night's engagement in the Victoria Theatre. This musical organization is headed by Ed. Rosner, organ and harmonium virtuoso, whose reputation is world renowned. Signor Carlo, a lightning painter will make a picture in oil in view of the audience in 15 minutes. The band will appear in their beautiful Hungarian crown officers uniform. An exchange says: "The band of Hungarians who performed last night have left none of their genius or ability at home. They are a quiet, orderly and sober set of gentlemen, intelligent looking and romantic enough their military costumes giving them a very picturesque appearance. The performance given in Williams' Hall has never been equalled and was a rare musical treat."

President Van Horne's Record.

W. C. Van Horne, the new president of the Canadian Pacific, is about 45 years of age, and of fine physique. He began his career about 1863 as a telegraph operator under Marvin Hughitt on the Illinois Central, being stationed at Champaign. About 1865 he went to the Chicago & Alton and served two years as night train despatcher at Bloomington and one year as day train dispatcher. When W. H. Miller died he took his place as superintendent of telegraph. He was next made division superintendent, with headquarters at Alton. After about two years in this position he was appointed general superintendent of the Northern Missouri road, now the St. Louis, Kansas City & Northern. He went back to the Alton to become general superintendent for a year or so, and then went to the St. Paul road. His next change was to the Canadian Pacific as general superintendent about ten years ago. He was made general manager, then vice president, and finally president. Railroad men who have worked with him say he is a strong man, and the equal of Hughitt, Cable or any of the brilliant railroad managers of the day.

OUR TOWN MAJOR.

Several Water Questions—Alderman Kelly—The Hospital Site, &c.

Now, as Mr. Hendry beat the City Council on the law suit, is there yet any reason remaining for the persistent refusal of the water works commissioner to pay the legitimate demand of Wilson Bros. for work done and certified to by Mr. Hendry? These men are hard working and industrious, struggling to establish an industry, and are entitled to every encouragement and support from the city council instead of being retarded. The Major would like to know if the water commissioner has paid this account yet; if not, why? Perhaps Alderman Coughlan will explain. The Major will have an answer somehow.

Why does not the Sanitary Inspector see that the open drain is cleaned that ripens and spreads its sweet smelling odour throughout the length and breadth of its serpentine course beneath the very nose of that official, crossing Government street at the gas works? Why, even the circus camels—and they are sweet smelling creatures, if you like—plugged up their nostrils with the dust from the road as they passed by. They can stand a good deal, but a Victoria open sewer was too much, even for them!

Some few days ago it was the Major's duty to call the attention of the City Fathers to the neglect of the fountain at junction of Government and Douglas streets. They have responded to his timely call by declaring the water commissioner empowered to take steps to place the long neglected fountain in working order. Thanks, gentlemen. Now you and the Major are beginning to understand each other. Alderman Coughlan, see that the drains in the neighborhood is flushed by the waste water from the fountain; it would be an improvement. Bye and bye we will get on swimmingly. The reforming of those little abuses, now and then pointed out by the Major, will soon establish a better order of things. They will come little by little, and his bunch of plumes will consequently increase to an enormous size. Won't the laughing jackasses on Government street, front and back, echo and bray? Start in at once boys; you want something readable for your columns.

One of the Water Committee left word for the Major a few days ago that it would take 6000 gallons of water to supply the fountain. Well, the fountain won't require to be in constant play, say a few hours in the forenoon and same in the afternoon would suffice for the present. The drinking fountain should always have a supply of water night and day.

Yes, "protect the animals!" that's what THE TIMES and the Major has been saying for a long time. No need to echo it from Government street, mayhap tho' that is the only way the cry will reach some humane ears over in James Bay. The end justifies the means. But, Mr. Colonist, why don't you cry out for the punishment of the perpetrators of this foul outrage against humanity? You're not half a bad fellow at heart; so join hands with THE TIMES and the Major in this issue. See that the guilty are brought to justice and an example made of them. Get the old chap upstairs to help you. If you go up to see him, take care of the Nihilist bombs scattered around. They are liable to go off when surcharged with a foulinane gas peculiar to that manufactory. They are also, when exploded, like the Chinese stink pots and smell most owing to staleness—were the matter fresh it wouldn't matter.

Alderman Kelly, you are a man after the Major's own heart, but you don't half go in for the whole hog. If you want to be the Tartan of your city, see that your bonuses are increased. Half a million for Seymour Narrows would not be too much. Victoria would treble the outlay in value in less than two years, were your ideas carried out, combined with the Major's suggestions about the needed city reforms and improvements, Victoria would in a short time become the undisputed Queen of the Western Adriatic! Keep on at them; so will the Major.

The Major would wish to say to his readers, re the Jubilee Hospital site, that the whole proceedings regarding the site is disgraceful. He has been informed that it is a feature peculiar to Victoria, for the citizens to first agree to a certain thing, appoint a committee to carry out the idea, then if some don't have a deep enough finger in the pie, to upset the whole proceedings if they can. The sympathy of The Major, like all true Irishmen, is always to be found on the side of the weak, villified and persecuted. If the clergymen and the doctors that have left things rest till the eleventh hour, had taken means to ventilate their views ere now, things might have been different. It would be to the credit of the city of Victoria, as a community, were the Jubilee Hospital question settled decently and quietly, which can be done by a little Christian forbearance on both sides. Let the clergy set the example, call a meeting of the people, who, as general taxpayers, have as much say in the matter as any other one. Dr. Helmcken laid the blame on the parsons because of the distance, and suggested a plan to do away with their attendance at the hospital altogether. Now, whose fault is it? Dr. Davie, silent till the eleventh hour, other doctors and clergymen ditto. Everyone is sick of the steryotyped form "Jubilee Hospital."

The circus has left, so have your dollars, but not those of THE TOWN MAJOR.

A STRANGE FIND.

Blood, Clothing and Letters Found on a Rock in Victoria Arm.

Yesterday between 2 o'clock and 4 o'clock p. m. a number of young lads went up the Arm in a boat for the purpose of swimming. Amongst the boys were sons of Messrs. Geiger, Becker and F. Sylvester. When they reached a place called Flat Rock, near the Narrows, on the north side of the Arm above the second bridge, they stepped ashore. On the rocks they discovered a coat, vest and pair of pants, and near to the clothing they saw blood on the rocks. After looking around for the owner of the clothes they decided to discover the owner by looking in his pockets for letters. They were fortunate enough to find the following which will perhaps lead to the discovery of the owner or lead to clearing up the mystery. These letters were handed to the Supt. of city police this afternoon by a reporter of THE TIMES:

Victoria, British Columbia,
Aug. 14, 1888.

P. S.—J. W. Crawley In Cear of Sells Brothers, Portland, Oregon.

The following was printed on a slip of paper found in the clothes:

"When fortune has not yet been favorable to you, be not sorry for it, it will not forsake you all the time for you will receive news that will surprise you and you will not be sorry any more.

A certain person will make your fortune; it is a person in whom you do not confide at all. Be not jealous if you want to be happy and be not suspicious of anybody. Do not confer with people that will give you bad advice; you have to keep friendship with a certain person and you will succeed. If you would conform to your neighbors you would have much anger, but the sorrow about you family will keep you off them.

Another letter found by the lads reads as follows:

J. M. Culley.

From all appearances the man's name is J. M. Culley. He was engaged selling lemonade in Sells' Brothers circus under the name of J. W. Crawley. Whether the man is dead or the whole affair a practical joke cannot be ascertained. Since learning of the matter we endeavored to find some one connected with the circus but ascertained that they are on the way to New Westminster.

MRS. CRAWFORD

Skipped this Morning by the Light of the Moon.

At 3:20 o'clock this morning a lonely hackman drove down the Esquimalt road and turned into the avenue leading to the Naval Hospital. He drew up his steaming steeds at the gate of a small farm occupied by Mrs. Crawford, the woman who was charged with enticing a young Chinese girl to unlawfully cohabit with a Chinaman named Ah Chee. The unprepossing widow emerged from the house and entered the hack which was closed up and the curtains drawn down. The horses were then turned towards the city and driven at a rapid rate to the Alaskan. On arriving at the wharf the hackman purchased a ticket for Seattle and took it to the comely widow who remained in the hack. When the steamer blew her last whistle the woman stepped out of the hack and bid farewell to Victoria. She stepped sprightly on board and is now in the land of the free. This morning her case was called in the police court but at the request of Mr. Walls was adjourned until to-morrow. She is out on her own recognizance in the sum of $50 and her non-appearance this morning to answer the charge or renew the bail shows very plainly that she did not intend to appear for trial. It will be in order for the senior editor of our morning contemporary to take a trip and bring the woman back.
